Council meeting 6/5/2014

The meeting was opened with a question and answer session with the Anglesey Dog Warden Mr B Owen who gave us an interesting insight on how to try and lessen the problem of dog fouling around the village/ There are now free dog waste bags to be had ,free of charge, from the shop, which can be disposed in bins or at home.

After thanking Mr Owen, Mrs E A Parry, the outgoing chair lady, invited the new Chairman for 2014-2015, Mr P Jones to take over. He thanked her for her hard work as Chairperson over the previous twelve months. Also present were Mrs C Roberts and Mr Arwel Hughes as well as Mr K Hughes Anglesey C.C, apologies were received from Mr R Owen, Mrs L Frazer and Miss K Jones. The minute were accepted as a true record by Mrs C Roberts with MR A Hughes seconding.

In matters arising it was decided to ask the playing field Committee to distribute the flower seeds (free of charge) to those children who wanted to take part and compete for the £10 prize and runner ups getting £2 each.

All correspondence were accepted and it was decided that the Code of Conduct Training will be delivered locally after the Clerk has had his training in October. The planning application for five houses on Maes Maethlu was granted unopposed.

The following bills to be paid- AON-£380, Anglesey Computer solutions £620 and after a request £100 to be paid to the Coffee House Pensioners Club.
